I love cryptics-tried the Atlantic MonthlyBy ADA winner for me, I love cryptics-tried the Atlantic Monthly, but am far more familiar with anything Canadian than american. This was fun and easy, and something I could do in my spare moments and not have to frustrate over the answers!1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. ChallengingBy Robert RodenzThese cryptic crosswords make the American version seem boring. They make the solver think, rather than just fill in the blanks with some every day word.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Uninspired!By CustomerUninspired clues with too many anagrams. Ninety-five percent of the clues are too easy and one percent are impossible to solve (really esoteric information involved). That leaves about four percent of clues that are about right in their difficulty. I wouldn't order another one in that series.
