Who is the toughest rider of all time? Who is the fastest cycling sprinter the world has ever seen? Would the racers of the sixties beat the champions of today? Put these long-standing debates to bed with this collection of illustrated cards showing the top stats of the 30 brightest stars from cycle sport history.

About the Author Rupert Smissen is a London-based illustrator. His work has been commissioned by many leading publications and brands, including Ray Bans and Little White Lies, and he also happens to be a keen cyclist. Claire Beaumont is brand manager for Condor Cycles in London, one of the UK's oldest and most prestigious frame-builders and bike shops. She is also a winning UK cyclo-cross racer.
