"Declarer Play the Bergen Way" has been chosen as "The 2005 Bridge Book of the Year."

"Here's your chance to learn how YOU can make more tricks and make more contracts. -- Larry Cohen, 19-time national champion"
"Marty scores again. His first book totally devoted to the play of the cards will definitely be a big hit." -- Eddie Kantar, World Champion
From the Publisher
The Book of the Year award is given annually. A prestigious committee of bridge authorities from all over the U.S. spends months looking over the many books written in the previous year and selects the one book they believe to be the most worthwhile for the millions of bridge players worldwide.
About the Author
Marty Bergen is one of the leading bridge personalities of our time. As a player, he won 10 major national championships. He has written 18 successful books on bridge, including the best-selling POINTS SCHMOINTS.
