.com Diablo doesn't lend itself to easy answers. Random changes with each new game assure a new experience each time, so to win, you need a mastery of the constants you can rely on. As useful as the book's general tips are, its greatest advantage is in the pages and pages of charts comparing the traits of monsters, spells, weapons, armor, and much more. Rather than giving away how to win, this guide gives you the info you need to make your own wise choices. A special section covers additional information for the real-time Net version of the game. The road to Hell is paved with good intentions?
