but each time I tried I found that different colors were different prices. (what's that all about?) In the $7 to $8 range I thought they were in the affordability ball park, (plastic) Returning to the item I couldn't seem to get a price for any color other than "acid green". Already got that. It may be me. Conceding that, I think that selections on should be more "idiot proof". Not that I consider myself an idiot, but I was frustrated with inconsistent prices with no explanation. Changes that happened with the product week to week as far as color availability. I've spent too much time on this, it's just a flower pot, (get a life). Just annoyed. 's great, love it, will put up with stupid glitches. [obviously this is not a review of a puzzle book...review is of a plant pot, sd1006ac hi-gloss 10" poly-planter, , pay more attention to your reviews.]1 of 1 people found the following review helpful.
