The tricks are very, very simple, so anyone of any age can reform these tricks with no problem. The instructions are very clear, and the pictures are a great help. I also enjoy how the book teaches you ways to fan the cards, force a card, and even move cards to the top. As I said before, an excellent book for beginners, or anyone looking to get into card magic. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Ok for beginners. By William Jergensen. Good beginning book. Good illustrations. Good descriptions in the text. 5 of 6 people found the following review helpful. A must have book! By CM Velez. I love books like this, because you'll find tricks in here that will keep your routine fresh and expansive. Invaluable.

Cards can be made to appear, disappear, change suit, multiply, defy gravity and a lot more besides: this practical book from a member of the Inner Magic Circle shows exactly how to perform a wide range of fantastic card tricks. The book begins with an introduction to magic, emphasizing the importance of practice and keeping the secret; step-by-step instructions then show how to perform a wide range of card tricks, ideal for both the hobbyist and the more serious performer.

About the Author: Nicholas Einhorn is a 'Gold Star' member of The Inner Magic Circle. In 2011 he 'fooled' two of the world's most famous magicians on the TV show Penn Teller: Fool Us. Nicholas has won a number of industry awards for his work, including The Magic Circle Centenary Close-up Magician, F.I.S.M (World Magic Championships), and The Magic Circle Close-up Magician of The Year. His illusions have been purchased and performed by magicians such as Paul Daniels and David Copperfield.
