Highlighting the laid back the nature of Australians in general, and examining how this affects the relationship between a photographer and their subject, presents a different way of conduct in an international industry, and sheds light on the rarely featured local industry of Australian artists. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A recommended read! By Ivy Buddee Finally, here is one for the Australians. We don't receive as much attention as our American counterparts, but as Roberts displays, Australian photographers are a leading contender in modern fashion photography. From Richard Bailey to Carlotta Moya, the most prominent Australian names receive much awaited attention in this installment. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A tribute to home grown talent By Hannah Jenkins A celebration of home grown talent. FIB Volume 3 'Masters of photography' pays tribute to the brilliance of Australian fashion photographers. A captivating compilation of some of their finest work that disperses the notion that creativity has no geographical boundaries.

Leading global publishing house, Fashion Industry Broadcast launches Series two in their 6 set series. The MASTERS OF PHOTOGRAPHY Trilogy, (Living Legends, Immortals and Australians) the definitive Trilogy on fashion photography, released as a Coffee table book set, e-books and Apps for mobile devices.
