But I bought this calendar in mid-January 2009 and I assumed that it would be a 2009 calendar...I guess I thought a calendar store wouldn't still be selling year old calendars. But it was actually 2008 and exactly the same as the one I had just finished a few weeks earlier. So my fault...but buyer beware! 0 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Mensa 365 Brain Puzzlers By E. Maxfield I cannot rate this calendar because I bought it as a gift. I gave it to someone who was VERY bright, and she seems to enjoy the morning challenge. 0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Thinking Cap must be on By Dennis Samaru Really gets the brain going. Might take the entire day to figure out some puzzles

These puzzles don't mess around. Created by puzzle master Abby F. Salny and an official calendar of Mensa, the internationally famous high-IQ society this year of mental conundrums is for people who really like to use their gray matter. Every day, a tough new challenge: Gigantiwords. Tom Swifties. They Might Have Said. Metamorphosis. Cubic Chaos. And lots more, including this stumper: What letter would logically replace the question mark in the following sequence? A E F H I K ? M N. In case your neurons let you down, answers are revealed on the back of each page.
