This dazzling volume collects some of the most interesting emerging photographers working in the field of fashion, showing how they navigate the delicate balance between art and commerce. The interaction between photography and fashion has always been compellinghow can artists balance commercial viability against their own creative vision? In this collection of cutting edge fashion photography, full-page color and black-and white photographs represent an incredible range of styles and techniquesfrom Jeff Burtons lush Hollywood-style scenarios to Viviane Sassens gorgeous African shots. As the notion of the "fashion photographer" becomes less distinct, the industry is benefitting from the incredible talents of artists whose influence leads the genre into a multitude of surprising, often shocking, directions. The photographers featured in this exciting collection represent a cutting-edge trend in all its diversity.

"Ideal for anyone interested in the world of high fashion."Range finderAbout the AuthorPatrick Remy teaches photography at the Ecal/Ecole Cantonale d'art de Lausanne, Switzerland.
