You've used up all of the Leslie Billig collections. You've exhausted the Uptown Puzzle Club. You're looking at the USA Today books and the L.A. Times collections and thinking about taking a chance.Well, Merl Reagle to the rescue. The puzzles are challenging but not impossible. They fit comfortably into the Shortz/Billig universe. Clues are fair and clever. All of the answers aren't "Esai" and they aren't loaded with Proper nouns, foreign words, or the names of South American rivers.If you find yourself muttering at or yelling at editors as you do crossword puzzles, well these puzzles are fun, fair, entertaining and aggravation free.

A nice alternative and a happy find. 11 of 11 people found the following review helpful. The best from the best By CorgisRock! Merl Reagle is the best crossword writer and this is a collection of his best work. That says it all: interesting, challenging, fun and peppered with Merl's delightful sense of humor. I enjoyed solving every single puzzle in this book. You will too! 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. The Very Best By All Like many of you, a highlight of Sunday morning is digging down to the Washington Post Magazine for the crossword puzzle. Merle's puzzles brought me back to really enjoying crosswords, and his passing was a blow. But, you can get right back into his funny, clever world with this book. It looks like most of these are from the 80s and 90s, and my old brain can't remember any of them, so I get to enjoy them again! There are also some specialty puzzles that are extremely clever and challenging.

Two books in one, this is a compilation of 60 puzzles selected by award-winning crossword author Merl Reagle from two of his bestselling previous books, Sunday Crosswords Volume 3 and Sunday Crosswords Volume 4. Will Shortz calls Merl's puzzles "fresher and funnier than anyone else's," and this is a great chance for crossword fans to see why. The puzzles in this book are ingenious, tricky, stimulating, and often laugh-out-loud funny, of medium difficulty but of maximum entertainment value. This is the first in a new series of two-in-one crossword anthologies from the puzzlemaker that Games magazine calls "the best Sunday crossword creator in America."

About the Author Merl Reagle is an award-winning crossword puzzle creator whose Sunday puzzle appears every week in more than 50 major U.S. newspapers, including the Los Angeles Times, the Philadelphia Inquirer, the San Francisco Chronicle, the Seattle Times, and the Washington Post. He is one of the stars of the 2006 documentary Wordplay and has been a guest on The Oprah Winfrey Show and The Simpsons, where he voiced an animated version of himself. He has been called the best Sunday crossword creator in America by Games magazine. He is the author of 17 crossword puzzle anthologies. He lives in Tampa, Florida.
