Honestly, I am not someone whom is faced with extreme outdoors, but I do like these cards. The cards are heavy duty and a real conversation piece when playing with family. Of course, most or all of the information in the cards is covered in survival books, but these cards make it easy to mentally brush up on the information whilst awaiting your turn during a game. My nieces and nephews found them to be very "cool" during our family reunion. 7 of 7 people found the following review helpful. Neat idea for the bug-out-bag or backpack. By J. Ontiveros These cards appear to be reasonably sturdy and it should be okay to throw them in a zip-loc bag or a dry bag in your BOB or hiking backpack. Can be used for a fun game of poker around the campfire or to research a variety of wilderness survival topics. For the experienced hiker/camper/survivalist the info on the cards may be a bit basic. I'm giving a set of cards to my son for his BOB and hoping he never needs them. These would be a great deal at $3 to $4 a deck, reasonable at $7. Survival topics are divided by suits. Topics discussed include fire starting, first aid, shelter and other basic wilderness survival concerns. I guess if a deck of regular playing cards average $3 a deck, this is a pretty decent alternative that could actually save your life. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Fun, educational. By Hamman I purchased this deck of cards as a stocking stuffer for my husband. This is a nice little gift for the guy who has everything, and whose tastes are particular. It's a convenient, fun way to keep helpful information quick at hand. It is light-weight and compact, so it fits almost anywhere. Like others have said, it's a good idea to familiarize yourself with the cards so that when you're in a tight spot, it's easier to navigate through them. They aren't the best deck to have for a game of poker, but if you're lost in the woods and it's just you, they are PERFECT for a game of solitaire. Something like this is great for your sanity when it's just you and you're playing a waiting game.

When heading into the outdoors, you chose multipurpose gear whenever possible--bonus points for equipment that's both functional and fun. You can't do better than The Don't Die Out There Deck, a compact deck of playing cards that tucks easily into any backpack or pocket. From construction of emergency shelters and evacuation techniques to how to care for someone with a fracture or construct a solar still, your poker hand contains basic survival tips that could prove lifesaving! The Don't Die Out There Deck makes a great gift for anyone who spends time in the outdoors. Topics are organized by card suit--Diamonds: survival essentials, signals, locating your position, and shelters; Spades: assessing the situation, water, fire, food, and evacuation techniques; Hearts: basic first aid, hypothermia, frostbite, heat illness, and sprains and dislocations; Clubs: CPR, head and spine injuries, fractures, bites and stings, and evacuating the injured
